

Simulated Emergency Test 2011 Net Preamble

Note: Adjust the net preamble for your net – change the callsign and your operating location to suit your net.

Calling all radio amateurs. Calling all radio amateurs.

This is (KH6HPZ, Hawaii State Civil Defense) calling the ARRL Simulated Emergency Test 2011 net. This is the annual Tsunami Exercise, and net operations will be from 9:00 am to 12 noon. We will issue Bulletin Alpha, take check-ins, review the scenario, then open the net to exercise operations.

Are there stations with emergency traffic?

09:01 SET Information Bulletin Alpha

This is (KH6HPZ, State Civil Defense) with the ARRL Simulated Emergency Test Bulletin Alpha for the annual Simulated Emergency Test exercise. This year's SET exercise will test a simulated tsunami scenario. The arrival times of the simulated tsunami waves from a 9.0 Moment earthquake are at 9:45 am and 10:45 am. Participating stations are encouraged to generate and exchange test messages. Due to the nature of the exercise, you must begin and end all messages with the sentence "This is an exercise message." Be prepared to handle tactical messages and formal ICS-213 messages. Please stand by check-ins. And further instructions.

End of Information Bulletin Alpha.

Check-ins

We will take net check-ins, by County. When checking in, please give (a) your location, (b) whether you operating with emergency power, (c) served agencies that you are in contact with during the SET net and (d) whether you're newly licensed since 2007. The information is summarized and reported to ARRL at the conclusion of the exercise. See ARRL Field Service Form A at www.arrl.org for more details.
