February 2007 Meeting

The next Meeting of the Los Banos Amateur Radio Club will be held on February 10th in the Police Annex Building located at 525 "J" Street. This meeting will likely include planning for the Club's role in the Los Banos Centennial celebration, plus an early look at Field Day plans.

Centennial Plans Coming Together

Eleven members were present at the January 2007 meeting, plus one visitor (Todd Springer's wife, Yulie). Among the matters discussed was the Club's role in the upcoming Los Banos Centennial celebration. Plans are to have a special event station in a prominent spot and to operate it from 10:00 AM until 9:30 PM - or until the bands close, whichever comes first. It has since come to light that the celebration plans include a 5K walk/run and the Club's involvement might be requested to provide communications for that function, as well. Plans will be discussed further at our February meeting.

The Club also, decided to retain the current arrangement for our monthly meetings. Finally, the 2007 Calendar of Events was finalized. A copy of it is on page 2 of this issue.
