OEN MINUTES
NOMINATIONS FOR THE UPCOMING ELECTION
March 18th, 2008
5:55PM

The meeting was called to order by the Net Manager N7RBO. The purpose was for nominations on the upcoming election. Board Members that are up for re-election are N7IPG, Southern Area Region, and K7MKN from the Portland area.

A roll call of the Board was held, board members were present.

K7JUC

K7DDI

W7BXD

N7IPG

K7SEG

The meeting was then turned over to Chairman of the Board K7DDI.

Nominations were then open for the Portland Area. KB7WDR nominated K7MKN, was 2nd by KE7LKT. K7MKN had said earlier that he would accepted the nomination. Since there were no other nominations, the position was accepted and no voting on that position is necessary.

Nominations were then open for the Southern Region. KA7ZIS nominated N7IPG was 2nd by KA7FUL. The position was accepted earlier by N7IPG so no voting on that position was necessary.

The Chairman of the Board asks for the meeting to be adjourned, and was seconded by K7JUC. The meeting was adjourned at 6:01 PM

GETTING RID OF THE FROG by The Lazy ol Ham.

Remember field day? Well, there sure is one that sticks out in my mind. My wife, Lizzie, and I were up in the Mts. where we were scraping the sky with a long wire antenna. We were camped by a small stream that was full of ripples, and as clear as good corn whiskey. I can still see those 40 inch rain bow trout jumping in the air a good ten feet for flies. It was heaven here on earth.---Field day was moving right along. I guess I had made a few thousand contacts on two meters, and who could count all the contacts I made on the HF bands? By now I had gotten a frog in my throat, and I could not talk any more. While I was doing field day, and getting all those contacts, Lizzie was busy a fix-in supper. She sure knew how to cook, and make a camp oven talk to you. She was busy baking an apple pie in that oven, I had watched her prepare it, and it sure looked good. I knew that when she got the pie done, she was going to ask me if I wanted a piece, and I

(4) could not talk to say yes.---This really scared me, what was I to do? I could not even tell her I would love a piece of that pie. Then it came to me, like Gangbusters. I had been fishing with some fireflies that I had brought along in a clear quart jar. They were all sealed up with the lid on, waiting to catch that 4 foot trout I had tried for yesterday. I run and grabbed me those flies in my left hand. I opened my mouth wide, with the jar next to it, and wouldn't you know, that old frog jumped right up there to get those twinkling little flies! Well, I grabbed him with my right hand when he come out, and run over and put him in the creek where he should be! My voice was back, and I eat three pieces of that apple pie, I think it was the best Lizzie ever made. Saved the fireflies to give us light in the dark of the night. In fact those fireflies provided light tell well after midnight, when I finally quit doing field day. Next time I go to field day with fireflies, I will put wires on them and use them to power my radio.

JUST GOOD CHOW by Connie N7RBH. --- This recipe came from Ethel Buckley, and it can be found in the K-BAR-A recipe book: STRAWBERRY CREAM SALID—2 (3 oz.) pkg. Strawberry jell-o. 2 (10 oz.) Pkg. Frozen strawberries. 1 (20 Oz.) can crushed pineapple. 2 large mashed bananas. 1 pt. Sour cream. Add 2 cups boiling water to Jell-o, stir. When dissolved, add both boxes of frozen berries. Stir until defrosted. Add pineapple and bananas, mix well. Pour ½ into a bowl or pan and let set in refrigerator. When set, spread sour cream on top. Add last ½ Jell-o mixture, which was left at room temperature. Chill until set.
