

News
7-11-36

IS MADE BY B

READY FOR DISASTER

This five-meter "transceiver" is typical of the field equipment which radio amateurs will use in time of emergency to establish a communication net over the valley. The transceivers will be used to relay information to the high power central station in the new Municipal Auditorium. The operator is Willis S. Clayton Jr., secretary of the Santa Clara County Amateur Radio Association.—Lomar Engraving Service, photo.