DAYS TO CELEBRATE

15th April Thursday marks the 92nd anniversary of the loss of the "RMS TITANIC".

A century has passed since Marconi spanned the Atlantic with RF waves and excited the imagination of the first generation of amateur wireless experimenter's. Amateurs were first to use single side band for worldwide voice communication, saving bandwidth and power. World Amateur day is celebrated every year on 18th April to mark the anniversary of the founding of the International Amateur radio Union in Paris on that date in 1925.

25th April 1874 is the birthday of Marconi. Every year the Saturday closest to the birthday of Marconi is celebrated and it falls on 24th April this year. Amateur radio stations are set up and operated from Marconi's original sites or nearby.

EYEBALL MEET AND CELEBRATIONS

18th April is the World Amateur Radio Day. To Celebrate this, and our club has planned the meeting at Andhra Club, 44, Vijayaraghava Road, T. Nagar, Chennai-17. On 24th April 2004 at 7.00 PM. We request all the hams to attend the meeting.

ECHOLINK

Convergence of technology has brought several changes to wireless communication network in the recent days, Amateur Radio is no exception. Using the Internet Backbone, the Echo link has brought about a revolution in which Amateur radio communication can be accessed all over the world via VHF.

Echolink is a software program developed by OM Jonathan P Taylor K1RFD. Echolink allows licensed Amateur Radio stations to communicate with one another around the world with VHF handsets using Internet as the Backbone for voice transmission (Voice-over-IP).

This program allows worldwide connections to be made between stations, or from Node connected to a FM repeater.

VU2MVR Chennai's second repeater (145.675MHz -600KHz, 77Hz CTCSS) is now hooked to Echolink connectivity via VU2 WIN node. Similar connectivity is also available in Delhi, Hyderabad and Coimbatore. Dx stations enjoy regular qsos with Chennai link complement for the good audio and IP connectivity.

Keen on helping, VU2 VAU came forward to share his DSL connection for Echolink. But is awaiting for the CTCSS board for his handset. Echo-IRLP gateway is almost ready with VU2 GMN. Some system still require completing the configuration process.

We hope due to the new revolution in the VHF communication more stations will be active.

SIGNALS FADE OUT
