Introduction To ARDXA

“You want the best in DX, Don't settle for less”

HARDXA Vision Quest

The Hong Kong Amateur Radio DX Association consists of a specialized group of Amateur Radio Operators with a focus on “DX’ing”... The reaching out, contacting and talking with other Amateur Radio Operators in other countries.

The Hong Kong Amateur Radio DX Association is interested in Amateur Radio, organised for the promotion of and the interest in establishing long distance (DX) communications, the experimentation and education in the art of antenna construction, equipment construction, long distance radio propagation studies, weak signal communications, specialized operations and new technologies, and all operating techniques to achieve this interest.

Mission Statement

- To promote the proper art of QSO and DX’ing techniques.
- To assist all members in their endeavors in becoming accomplished Dxers.
- To represent all members in their rights as Licensed Radio Amateurs.
- To promote the art of Dx’ing to it’s highest standard.
- To assist other Dxers in other countries in their reasonable pursuit of Dx.
- To associate, fraternize, liaise and join like minded associations.
- To join with other like minded associations in the lawful pursuit of all Dxers rights.
- To provide a Forum where Dxers may express their views and ideals.
- To organize and provide meetings, field days, Dx-peditions, gatherings, excursions, trips and activities for it’s members.
- To develop and provide codes of practice, ethics, guidance notes on operation techniques to it’s members.
- Any other Activities which HARDXA feels are in the interests of it’s members.
