Compliance With Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance

Hong Kong Amateur Radio DX Association (HARDXA) requires collection of data from individuals for the following reasons:

- 1) Individuals who are in process of applying to join HARDXA as a member must complete an application form which will ask for various personal data which is required for membership application purposes.
 - 2) All personal data collected from individuals for membership purposes shall not be released to other parties and will only be used by HARDXA for such purposes as contacting members concerning Association affairs and activities, sending of HARDXA correspondence and various documents to members from time to time and any other matters concerning HARDXA .
 - 3) HARDXA will not disclose any of individual members particulars to other parties unless specifically asked to do so in writing by the individual concerned.
 - 4) In certain circumstances HARDXA may be required under other ordinances which may be in force to comply with various other Government Departments to submit particulars on individual(s) and will be required to do so to comply with law without any prejudice to the rights of individual(s), (ie HARDXA may be required to supply details to The Office Of The Telecommunications Authority [OFTA] from time to time). HARDXA will not be held responsible in such circumstances.
 - 5) Members may be asked to update their personal data with HARDXA from time to time in connection of execution of item 2 above. If members do not supply the updated details to HARDXA, HARDXA cannot ensure that members are fully kept up-to-date on all news and affairs, events, issues, correspondence and publications and HARDXA cannot accept any responsibility arising from the same.
 - 6) HARDXA members should not disclose personal data of fellow HARDXA members without first obtaining the consent of the member concerned. HARDXA will assume no responsibility for such actions.
 - 7) This statement is subject to review and amendment from time to time by HARDXA to comply with ordinances in force.
