

An Unholy Election

This country called America held an election recently.
People who thought they had a vote went patriotically.
Poll booths were established all across this great land.
We all thought we had a say in government at hand.
Little did honest voters know what would transpire.
Funny vote totals nobody ever thought to inquire.
Were seen coming out of nowhere at an odd hour.
Poll watchers being kept away by abusive power.
Seems we all now have a new 'President-Elect'.
One that suffers in earning any honest respect.
Crooked politics have taken over this great land.
How can a Holy God allow for this to ever stand?
Does anyone in the judicial system try to even see?
That there's so much evidence to show so readily.
For voter fraud that took place on a massive scale.
How could righteous government possibly prevail?
May God in Heaven strike those who so callously
Stole our right to vote in this 'Land of the Free.'
If we are all to suffer from an unholy election,
I pray those found guilty also suffer a reflection!
God cause those evil minds to become so obscure.
That their thoughts found a way of being pure.
And would see the error in their way and repent.
Giving back to this land it's rightful government!
