

CELEBRATING 400 YEARS OF RELATIONS

TODAY, TOMORROW, TOGETHER
DENMARK & THAILAND

1621 - 2021

The earliest registered Danish visit to Siam was in 1621, when the Danish ship "Toon" docked at the port of Mergui in Tenasserim which at that time was part of Siam. The captain and his crew were allowed to trade and received a letter of agreement written by Okya Chaiyathibodi, regent of Tenasserim. This event marks the beginning of the good relationship between Denmark and Thailand still true 400 years later.
