

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF THE

SANTA CLARA COUNTY AMATEUR RADIO ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

The name of the existing unincorporated association which is being incorporated is:
"SANTA CLARA COUNTY AMATEUR RADIO ASSOCIATION."

ARTICLE II

The principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is located in Santa Clara County, California.

ARTICLE III

The purpose of this educational corporation is to encourage the study of the science of radio communication and to coordinate amateur radio activities. This is a corporation which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof.

The corporation shall exist perpetually, and shall possess all powers conferred by law upon nonprofit corporations, including the following powers:

1. To sue and be sued;
2. To contract and be contracted with;
3. To receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and to otherwise acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including shares of stock, bonds and securities of other corporations.
4. To act as trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation, and to receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust;
5. To convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust or otherwise dispose of all property, real or personal;
6. To borrow money, contract debts, and issue bonds, notes and debentures, and secure the same;
7. To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE IV

The governing board shall be known as the Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be not less than three, the exact number to be fixed by the by-laws of the corporation not inconsistent with these Articles. The first Board of Directors shall consist of seven directors, including the President and Vice President of the corporation. The names and addresses of the first Board of Directors are:
