Secretary, Judy Wozniak K4WOZ

Program Director, Joe Mustion KG4WLG

Emergency Coordinator, Rick Sochon N1OV

Station Trustee, Bob Goldberg WA4M

Richard Wiczalkowski, Vice President, called the meeting to order at 1 PM. Richard stated that the Station Trustee will be decided at the next Board Meeting, July 31, 2019. Comments are to be given to Richard Hillyer, President before the meeting starts.

Treasurer Report: Ed reported that there are 74 members and 6 are from Kings Point. The Treasury Balance is $4,697.02.

General Business: Mr. Michael Friolet stated that all club equipment was in good working order. However, Michael requested that equipment be returned back to original working order after Field Day. Michael is also looking into new repeaters and radios.

Mr. Ed Blecher stated that the antenna project will get started in a week or two.

Mr. Rick Sochon, Emergency Coordinator, stated that we are now part of the South County Emergency Plan. There are now 11 shelters that need coverage and volunteers are needed. The drill pointed out that the 440 frequency did not work well. The team and the radio at South Bay Hospital had no problems.

New Business: The Board would like to thank Mr. Bill Barron and Mr. Joel Bahl for an excellent job on Field Day 2019. Possibly another Field Day can be held in the future. Thank you to all who contributed food and beverages.

Mr. Jim Key, KI4TMX a member of the Nominating Committee, wishes to remind everyone interested in being a Board Member in 2020 to please give their name to him or Mr. Pat Masterson, KE2LJ before the Board Meeting October 30, 2019.

Any future announcements or discussions will be time limited so as not to interfere with the scheduled program.

Mr. Bob Goldberg has scheduled an Amateur Radio Testing Session on Saturday, July 6, 2019 at 10:00 AM at the SCCARC Room. The Technician, General, and Extra exams will all be offered to anyone interested in obtaining a license or upgrading.

The following members were also in attendance: Mr. Doug Gatchell, and Mr. Michael Friolet. Mr. Richard Hillyer, President was absent.

Meeting closed at 1:22 PM
